TODAY'S CHANGE AT THE AUDI-

TORIUM.

Although the bill which closed here last right was perhaps one of the best of the season, it lacked a certain variety which today's show promises to be well supplied with. It contains music, talking, acrobatics and ventriloquil work, and promises to make up a first-class and very entertaining bill. Everyone will welcome Casey and Smith, who play a return engagement here the last half of this week, and all will remember the hit they made here a year and a half ago in their comedy musical act, in which Mr. Smith so capably portrayed the ecentric Few. Both these fellows arciver musicians also, and they certainly put over some funny stuff. The premier hand and head balancing of the Chameroys, who also present many classy feats of strength and skill, will surprise all who see it, especially the wonderful strength of the feminine member of the act. Edward Rose, the Ventriloquil Wonder, will present an original act in this line, in which it is practically impossible to detect a single movement of his lips will the wonderful strength of the Collage Boy and The Show Girl is a next, refined little skit presented by Miss Gladys Van and Arthur Pearce, for which special scenery is carried, and is a vandeville turn which always pleases. Some of the motion pictures are: Dr. Geoffrey's Conscience, The Model's Redemntion. pleases. Some of the motion pictures are: Dr. Geoffrey's Conscience, The Model's Redemption.

POLI'S THEATER.

The members of the Halle club have taken hold of the Poli theater benefit proposition with a will, and their first might—one week from Friday—will be a real success, or they will know the reason why. After tomorrow morning the tickets will be on sale at the chb rooms.

"Girls," the present week's offering, continues to attract a steadily increasing patronage, and will be a recordbreaking week. Tonight is Jewett City right, and in addition there will be parties from Central Village and Plainfield. There are still some good Plainfield. There are still some good seats for sale at the theater for Norwich patrons. Tomorrow afternoon the company holds a reception on the stage to meet and greet their friends from the audience. Next week Sherlock Holmes.

BREED THEATER.

Offering always the very best in otion pictures, the Breed theater for day and the balance of the week today and the balance of the week will show the great story of the Cuban war, entitled The Rough Rider's Homance. During the action of the narrative, one of the most realistic and exciting battle scenes ever filmed is shown. Perfect photography permits the spectator to follow the moves of the American troopers as they rush across an open plain, and through the ambushed enemy to the hill top and victory, making the climax truly spectacular and thrilling. tacular and thrilling,

Doan's Kidney Pills will do this. Here is Norwich testimony to prove

Mrs. Henry Dearing, 439 Main St., Strwich, Conn., says: "I suffered erribly from pains in my back and I terribly from pains in my back and I think they were due to disordered kidneys. I was always in great misery when I lay down and was often unable to sleep. Mornings when I arose I felt so stiff and lame that I could scarcely get about, and if I stooped sharp twinges darted through my loins, making it hard for me to straighten. At times my face was so badly swollen that my eyes were badly swollen that my eyes were closed. Although I was treated by physicians I obtained no benefit until physicians I obtained no benefit until I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their use improved my condition in every way, in fact, to so great an extent that I felt like a different person. My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills warrants me in recommending them in the highest terms."

POCTRY.

THE COMMON THINGS.

marvel more at just the common things.

The common toil and majesty of Dethroned of kingship, than I do of kings.

The glorious smile that plays its path again

Over the tear-wet face of one sweet child

Is more divine. The energy I find Bred in the compost of the undefiled Is greater than restoring of the blind.

Out of the common days whose skies burn blue; Over the common nights whose stars reveal Such wondrous distances to me and Out of the daily loves I know and feel Comes a sweet recognition of God's plan
To soothe the turbulence and bitter fear
Which sometimes smothers my regard for man
And devastates the solace of a tent.

He's very orderly and nest.

His desk looks always very nice;
Each thing is in the proper place.

The whole arrangement is precise.
But oh, the precious time it takes
To make the orderly array!
I watch him fussing with details.

And often wonder, "Does it pay?"

He starts in promptly when he comes.

To dust and sort and 'range and file,
Hour after hour he spends until
Each scrap is in its proper pile.
But when the hour of six has come,
The clock awakes him with a jerk,
He's spent so much time clearing up
That he has no time left for work!
